The City of Reading Local Redevelopment Authority (LRA) is holding a public meeting on Wednesday, January 28th at 7 p.m. to learn how you would like to see this property used in the future.

The Navy Marine Center was decommissioned in 2005 and the Navy will be moving out by the end of 2010. The Reading LRA is composed of 3 members of City Council, 2 neighbors from this neighborhood and 2 at large Reading residents. The Reading LRA needs to learn what type of new use you would favor and what type of new use would support the best interests of your family and your neighborhood.
